

Individual Peer Eval One

(Upload your responses to canvas as a .pdf, but also print and bring to section in week six)

How has the group respected your group's agreed upon values and practices over your first few weeks together?

I believe we have done an excellent job of setting and maintaining realistic goals and expectations for this project. Also have been very receptive and open to new ideas.

Are there any values or practices that are being ignored or are not working?

No, I believe all are working & being thought of.

Do any values or practices need to change? Which? How would you propose to change them?

No, all seem to be working.

How have you (as an individual) helped build a good creative culture in your group?

Being open and constructive with new ideas brought up by group members

How might you (as an individual) improve your engagement with the group/project?

Be more open with communication and complete tasks quicker